BUYS FORESTRY TEMPLE.

City of Portland Acquires Lewis and Clark Fair Forestry Building.

The city of Portland is now in possession of the forestry building, which was the pride of the recent Lewis and Clark exposition, and which was recently received from the Oregon state commission by the city, says the Oregonian.

Yesterday afternoon Jefferson Myers, president of the state commission; Dr. Dav. Raffety, commissioner of forestry at the exposition, and Deputy City Auditor C. F. Wiegand journeyed through the mud and slush to the magnificent structure, and took an inventory of all the contents of the building, which was later officially turned over to the auditor at the city hall.

The building will be placed under the supervision of the park commissioners, who will have charge of caretaking and installing of further exhibits.

Several of the lumber companies having exhibits in the building have agreed to leave their property there, and also to add to their collections from time to time.

The building was erected at a cost of $35,000, and the contractors are said to have lost $5000 in the construction. In accordance with an agreement made with Mayor Lane, James J. Hill, of the Great Northern, will be requested to place the concrete foundation as soon as possible, for the park commission desires to have the building thrown open to the public at the earliest possible date.

The city has acquired title to two acres of ground on which the structure is built, and the grounds will be fitted up as a park.

Dr. Ward an Educator.

(Idaho State Tribune.)

The growth of the medical profession to the skill of today could not be better understood than by a talk with Dr. Ward at his quarters at the Carter hotel. The doctor, who is the chief of staff and western representative of one of the greatest surgical institutes of the world, located at Crawfordsville, Indiana, is an educator in his quiet chats.

A newspaper representative who met the doctor in Colorado visited his apartments Monday and was taken through by the doctor. The latter explained the growth of medicine. How, by accidents and other means, some of the most valuable medical aids were discovered.

The doctor took the reporter into his surgical laboratory where he showed his instruments, trunk after trunk of the most valuable instruments known to the profession, representing in all an expenditure of $3000. It took years of constant study and practice for the doctor to perform hundreds and thousands of operations that it is impossible for other physicians to do.

One of the most interesting of the number is a lamp, a small electric globe, which the doctor uses to light up the human system when making an examination. Then in his medical or chemical laboratory is a line of drugs including every known drug to the American medical profession and many gathered from all nations of the world.

Lyman J. Gage's health is failing rapidly and he has resigned the presidency of the United States Trust company, of which he has been the head for five years.

"VAS DER DINNER A FAILURE?"

Vas der dinner a failure?
Vell, now, dot depends
On where you get der groceries,
Mine friends.
Der womans mit oxbreience
Is sure to go.
Where she gets der most for her
"dough."
"Vas der dinner a failure?"
I ask mine Katrine,
Und she look off me so,
Dot I feels pooty mean.
Den she say: "Meester Strauss,
Shust come here eff you blease."
Und she show me der table,
Mit der limburger cheese;
Und she smiles a sweet smile,
Dot vas bleasant to see,
Und she say: "Yawcob, I trade
Mit der EAST END GROCERY.
Dhere mit bacon und hams und lim-

Canned goods und vegetables, Crescent coffee und teas,
Und all dis once before me,
I'm not at a loss,
To know what vill blease
My dear Yawcob Strauss."
So, now, mine friends, I und mine
Katrine agree,
Dot der place once to trade alretty,
Is der EAST END GROCERY.

TALK OR TALCUM?

If you are buying talk then buy anything the dealer may choose to say is "just as good."

If you are buying talcum, then MENNEN'S BORATED TALCUM is the only preparation which you can buy with satisfaction.

"Talk is cheap." Talcum, however, is not so cheap, because it costs the dealer more and makes his profit less. That's why he'd sooner sell you talk than "talcum" of the Mennen Brand.

Don't be talked out of buying Mennen's Borated Talcum, the only powder which can be used with safety and satisfaction.

Have you tried MENNEN'S VIOLET BORATED TALCUM TOILET POWDER? It's fragrant with the odor of fresh plucked Parma Violets.
